CHRISTMAS COCKTAIL IDEAS

Hot Toddy: The perfect cold-weather remedy, this cocktail mixes whiskey (or other brown spirits), hot water, lemon, and honey, with a cinnamon stick for extra flavor.

Baileys White Russian: A festive twist on the classic White Russian, this cocktail mixes Baileys Irish Cream, Kahlúa, vodka, and whole milk, served over ice.

Hot Buttered Rum: A famously comforting drink, hot buttered rum combines spiced butter batter with rum and boiling water. You can make a batch of the butter mixture in advance to easily serve guests.

Espresso Martini: The perfect after-dinner drink, this cocktail blends vodka, coffee liqueur, and espresso. Add gingerbread for festive spice.

Please drink responsibly

WHEN YOU BUY ANY 3 BEAUTY PRODUCTS*

Fragrance is a deeply personal gift, showing that you truly know and understand the recipient. A thoughtfully chosen scent reflects their unique style and personality, creating an instant emotional connection. Whether it's a fresh and citrusy Eau de Toilette for a free-spirited adventurer or a rich, amber Eau de Parfum for a sophisticated evening, your gift is a special gesture that says, "I see you".

FRAGRANCE TIPS

To maximise your fragrance, apply it to moisturised skin on pulse points like wrists and neck, and avoid rubbing after spraying.

You can also layer scents by using matching scented lotions or oils before your perfume.

Reapply throughout the day by using travel-sized atomizers or a soaked cotton bud.

Properly store fragrances in a cool, dark place to maintain their quality.

SUNGLASSES TIPS

To keep your shades looking sharp, always store them in a protective case when not in use.

Clean them gently with a microfiber cloth and lens-safe solution and never with tissues or clothing.

Avoid leaving them in hot cars or direct sunlight for long hours, as high heat can warp frames and damage lenses.

A little care goes a long way in keeping your view crystal clear and your style timeless.
